VII. RULES APPLICABLE TO DEPOSITIONS

A. General

The scheduling and conduct of depositions, including resolution of any disputes arising during depositions, shall be in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Counsel are expected to cooperate with, and be courteous to, each other and deponents.

B. Scheduling of Depositions

1. The Presiding Judge expects that witness depositions in this matter will commence in due course. The Presiding Judge's objective is to avoid the repeated depositions of any person. Plaintiffs' Co-Liaison Counsel (and/or their designated representatives) and Defendants' Co-Liaison Counsel (and/or their designated representatives) therefore shall attempt to establish by mutual agreement a schedule for depositions in this proceeding and all other coordinated proceedings that reflects a sequencing that is consistent with (a) the availability of documents from among those produced by the parties and third parties; (b) the objective of avoiding the need to subject any person to repeated depositions; and (c) the need to preserve relevant testimony. Disputes concerning the timing and scheduling of depositions may be presented to the Presiding Judge.

2. The Presiding Judge expects, to the extent practicable, that the use of formal notices of depositions or subpoenas with respect to party witnesses will be unnecessary in this case – that is, party witnesses will be produced in accordance with whatever schedule is developed. The lead questioner for any deposition shall provide all counsel with at least ten (10) days written notice of each deposition to be taken. The parties will work together on the production of documents in lieu of the use of subpoena duces tecum on a witness by witness basis, with any disputes to be resolved by a Presiding Judge. All witnesses shall bring to the deposition any handwritten notes or logs, personal computer files, personal diaries or journals, or any other personal items kept in the regular course of business that have not previously been produced, provided that such items shall be limited to the specific subject matter designated as to the respective witness being deposed; provided, counsel shall file and serve any objections and privilege logs as to withheld documents on or before four (4) days before the deposition.

3. Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Liaison Counsel and Co-Liaison Counsel will be responsible for keeping all counsel that they represent fully apprised of the scheduling of any depositions in this proceeding.

C. Attendance

Unless otherwise ordered under Tex. R. Civ. P. 199, depositions may be attended by counsel of record, members, and employees of their law firms, attorneys and experts specially engaged by a party for purposes of the deposition, the parties or the representative of a party, and counsel for the deponent. While a deponent is being examined about any stamped confidential document or the confidential information contained therein, persons to whom disclosure is not authorized under the Confidentiality Order shall be excluded.

In order to provide appropriate accommodations, any attorneys and/or their staffs planning to attend any deposition need to provide written notice three (3) business days prior to the deposition to their respective liaison counsel, informing the liaison counsel of the number of people that will attend. If an expert is to attend a deposition, all parties shall be notified three (3) business days before the deposition or within such other time as agreed to by the parties. Unnecessary attendance by counsel is discouraged.

D. Conduct of Depositions

1. In any deposition, the Co-Liaison Counsel requesting the deposition shall designate a lead questioner. Questioners shall divide their time by agreement, asking the Presiding Judge to resolve any disputes in that regard (but only where absolutely necessary).

2. Reasonably in advance of the date scheduled for a deposition, any attorneys desiring to be a questioner shall coordinate with the designated Co-Liaison Counsel for time apportionment purposes and non duplication purposes. New or supplemental depositions of witnesses relating to core issues, or relating to case specific issues previously the subject of a deposition, will not be scheduled without prior leave of the Presiding Judge or by agreement of the parties.

E. Duration of Examinations

1. Except by agreement of counsel, party specific depositions and depositions of corporate representatives that have been designated on any specific subject matter, continue to be governed by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 199.5(c).

2. Except by agreement of counsel, with respect to depositions, the duration of depositions shall be limited as follows, excluding time taken for breaks, meals, and other reasons:

A. Lead examiner shall not be more than three (3) hours

B. Other examiners shall not be more than three (3) hours.

The total period for such core depositions shall not extend over more than one day. If any witness is to be presented through an interpreter, the presenting attorney shall notify the deposing attorney of same at least five (5) days prior to the deposition and the allocated time listed above will be doubled.

3. Deviation from these time limitations will be permitted only with leave of the Presiding Judge or by agreement of the parties. Any request to extend the time limit on a deposition must be accompanied by a certification that good and reasonable reasons preclude completion of the deposition during the allotted time period and that the particular information being sought cannot be elicited from a witness that is (or could be) scheduled to appear at another time.

4. It is expected that counsel will confer prior to each deposition to determine how time will be allotted to each participating attorney, consistent with the provisions set forth above. This conference should occur a sufficient time prior to the deposition to permit the resolution of any disputes regarding time allocation by the Presiding Judge, should that become necessary.

F. Supplemental Depositions

Witnesses shall not be subjected to more than one deposition conducted within the limitations described above, nor to repetitive and redundant questioning. Supplemental depositions will be permitted only upon motion demonstrating (a) a good and reasonable need for the information sought and (b) good and reasonable reasons why the desired lines of questioning could not have been pursued in the original deposition and why the information cannot be obtained from any persons available for future depositions. If permitted, a supplemental deposition shall be treated as the resumption of the deposition originally noticed. Examination in any supplemental deposition shall not be repetitive of any prior interrogation of that deponent.

G. Deposition Exhibit Protocol

1. Copies of Exhibits. Each attorney who will question a witness during a deposition shall bring one copy of the potential deposition exhibits for use during the deposition and shall make the exhibits available to the other parties for copying prior to being tendered to the witness. Exhibits that are not included on CD Rom or posted on the Internet must be identified 5 working days prior to the deposition in question or the deposing attorney shall bring 7 additional copies of the exhibits to the deposition for use by opposing counsel.

3. Exhibits to be Provided with Transcript. It is the responsibility of the lead attorney taking the deposition to provide copies of ALL exhibits to the court reporter immediately at the conclusion of the deposition so that the exhibits can then be provided to all counsel with the transcript of the deposition.

4. Electronic Transcripts. The lead attorney taking the deposition is required to use a court reporter who can and will provide an uncertified rough draft to all counsel at their expense who request it within 24 hours after the conclusion of the deposition.

H. Videotaping

A party may record a deposition by videotape pursuant to Tex. R. Civ. P. 199.1(c). The following rules shall apply to the taking of any such deposition:

1. Interruptions. No attorney shall direct instructions to the video operator as to the method of operating the equipment. The video camera operation will be suspended during the deposition only upon stipulation by counsel and during “off the record” discussions. The video operator shall record on camera the time of suspension and any subsequent reconvening of the deposition.

2. Standards. The deposition will be conducted in a manner to replicate, to the extent feasible, the presentation of evidence at trial. Unless physically incapacitated, the deponent shall be seated at a table except when reviewing or presenting demonstrative materials for which a change in position is needed. In order to evaluate the quality of the videotaping equipment to be used, attorneys must give the name, address, and phone number of the videographer to counsel for the deponent ten (10) days in advance of the deposition. Any objections to the quality of the videotaping equipment shall be made five (5) days in advance of the deposition.

3. Certification. After the deposition is completed, the video operator shall certify on camera the correctness, completeness, and accuracy of the video tape recording in the same manner as a stenographic court reporter.

VIII. RULES CONCERNING PRIVILEGE ISSUES

Within forty-five days of the date of this Order, the parties will propose a supplement to the Case Management Order pertaining to rules concerning privilege issues and resolving challenges to claims of privileges. Attorneys Suzanne Pickering and Bridget Brinson shall take the lead on preparing and circulating this Order.

IX. RULES CONCERNING AUTHENTICITY AND BUSINESS RECORDS

Within forty-five days of the date of this Order, the parties will propose a supplement to the Case Management Order pertaining to rules concerning authenticity and business records. Attorneys Suzanne Pickering and Bridget Brinson shall take the lead on preparing and circulating this Order.

X. EXISTING DOCKET CONTROL DEADLINES, SCHEDULING ORDER DEADLINES AND TRIAL DATES

All existing docket control deadlines and scheduling order deadlines in the coordinated cases that were entered prior to the entry date of this Order are vacated, without prejudice.

XI. SCHEDULING ORDER

1. Expedited Cases.

The scheduling order incorporated in this Order applies to the Expedited Cases.

2. Extended Cases.

A CMO/ Scheduling Order for these cases shall be finalized following the resolution of the Expedited Cases. Subsequently added Defendants shall be provided a copy of this Order concurrently with service by the Plaintiffs.
